CITY IN BRIEF.

Roberts Park Church will continue its revival services.

The thawing of the fire plugs continues through the city.

Charles O'Connor, son of M. O'Connor, has returned home. He has been in the South. Diphtheria is decreasing and measles are increasing in the city. Otherwise the health of the city is fair.

The Indianapolis Pressed Brick Works fire proves to be a loss of over $12,000, with $7,500 insurance. Incendiary.

All applications for examination before the Civil Service Commission, to be held tomorrow, must be handed in to day.

The trial of Captain E. T. Johnson, at Greenville, Tenn., for the killing of Major Henry, has gone over to the June term.

Next, the great cartoonist, is to give an illustrated lecture at English's, March 19, the illustrations to be drawn by himself.

A constable's horse became frightened yesterday afternoon and ran down the Court-house walk on Delaware street from Market. Although it only ran about 150 feet it managed to wreck the vehicle, tearing it to pieces, and to tear the wheels and shafts from another vehicle standing by the side of the curb.

P. J. Marshall, charged with the theft of $35 from John Klein, was sent out from the City Court yesterday for Grand Jury attention.

Officer Barker condemned fifteen hogs at Herman Mal's slaughter house east of the city yesterday. They were put into the grease tank.

The Federal Court officials oppose the proposed pardon of William Orecelius, the Harrison County counterfeit, now serving a three year sentence.

The Eagle Cotton Mills of Madison have been completed, the machinery is all in position, and the engines and boilers have been tested. It is the intention to start up the 1st of March.

A rumor is out in the State that the Legislature is talking of repealing the law providing for the State Board of Health. This is a mistake. The Legislature wants to put another man on the force.

It has been suggested that a series of gospel meetings should be held nightly for some time in Y. M. C. A. Chapel. A meeting of Christian workers will be held this evening in the parlors to consider the matter, and all interested are urged to attend or send a hand.

The Galician Medical Society held its final entertainment in the College Block, corner of Tennessee and New York streets, last evening. The performance consisted of literary productions by the students and an address by Professor W. H. Thomas, which was well received.

William Mollerhaus, 413 West North street, who married a colored woman, was found unconscious Sunday. He died Wednesday night. The coroner was informed, and it was thought he had died from poisoning. The matter will be investigated, but it is probable that he died from exposure and want of proper care on his part.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Dr. Button goes to Atchison for future residence.

Editor J. O. Henderson, of the Kokomo Dispatch, was in the city yesterday and called on the Sentinel. Come again, Mr. Henderson.

Hon. John H. Stotsenburg, of New Albany, called to see us yesterday. We were glad to welcome him to the hospitalities of the sanctum.

Dr. Joseph Eastman has been summoned to his old home in New York City by the illness of his mother, who was supposed to be in a dying condition.

Word has been received of the death of Mrs. E. J. Anthony, of Valparaiso, at Paris. Mrs. Anthony was the wife of Judge Anthony, and was widely known in this city.

M. F. Robinson, who has been spending a month in Florida, returned yesterday. He reports pleasant weather there, and no frosts to injure the tenderest vegetation this winter.

Vice President Hendricks and wife left last evening at 3:45 o'clock for Washington, D. C. They were accompanied by Colonel John S. Williams, of Lafayette; Elliott Ford, Judge Rand, John Martin and Hughes East.

A Painful Accident.

Edmund Williamson, of Fayette street, engineer at the Capital Elevator, met with an accident yesterday morning which cost him his left eye. He was assisting Milton A. Woolen, Superintendent, in mending something in the room, and when the latter spoke to him Williamson turned his head suddenly. Mr. Woolen held in his hand an awl, several inches in length, in such a position that it struck Mr. Williamson in the eye, he perforating it and bursting it open. His sufferings were very severe, but owing to the inflammation which set in nothing could be done at that time. Dr. Thompson will remove the eye-ball this morning. Dr. Featherston assisting. The wounded man is forty years old, and has a wife and four children.

Calling a Pastor.

At the meeting of the congregation of the First Presbyterian Church, last night, the committee reported that it had received assurances that if Rev. Matthew L. Haines, of Astoria, N. Y., should be called he would accept the call to the pastorate of the church. It was decided to call him, and the call will be prepared immediately. It is expected that Mr. Haines will take charge of the church the 1st of April.

COURT-HOUSE LOCALS.

The Twine Inquest—John McLaughlin Bound Over to Keep the Peace — Barnhart Awarded $8,000 Damages.

Albert G. Porter, as guardian of Robert A. Tonney, has filed suit to foreclose a mortgage against J. W. Marsee and others. Demand, $3,000.

Peter Moore Cochrane has filed suit against Lewis Shively and a large number of other persons and corporations to quiet title to twenty lots in Murphy's south addition to the city.

Isabella Cassin, aged fifty years and married, was declared insane yesterday. She is not violent, but mildly insane. She was in the State Hospital for the Insane thirteen years ago.

In the Criminal Court yesterday John Conroy pleaded guilty to grand larceny and was given three years North by Judge Norton. Conroy stole two cows, and was caught with them in his possession.

James Mack has filed suit for damages against William E. Manning in two paragraphs. The first charges defendant with having enticed Anna Mack, plaintiff's daughter, aged sixteen years, to leave her home. The second alleges that defendant debauched his daughter. Demand is made in each paragraph for $3,000.

John McLaughlin was tried yesterday by Judge Norton on peace surety proceedings, which had been appealed by him from a Peace Justice. He was found guilty and bound over in the sum of $300 for two years, and in default of the bond went to jail. The complaint had been made by his former wife, who had been divorced from him.

The jury in the suit of George R. Barnhart vs. the I. B. and W. and others yesterday returned a verdict for plaintiff, giving him $8,000. It is understood that the jury was unanimous as to defendant's right to recover, and the figures varied from $1,000 to $15,000, six men favoring the latter amount on the first canvas of the master. The finding is in the nature of a special verdict, and after the questions of law are examined by Judge Walker the judgment is to be entered in accordance with that examination.

Dr. Morrow, senior physician at the City Hospital, testified yesterday as to the death of John Twine, who was taken to the hospital on Saturday, the 14th. He says that the following Tuesday there was a bleeding of the wound in Twine's leg, which came from the femoral artery. Symptoms of gangrene had set in. Before his death Twine told witness substantially the story of how Banks shot him as related at the time in the papers. Coroner Stratford returned his verdict, finding that "John Twine came to his death from the effects of a gunshot wound in the left thigh; that said shot was fired from a revolver in the hands of Warren Banks. I further find that the shot was not fired with intent to kill, but that the revolver was discharged accidentally, while handling it and pointing it at Twine in a criminally careless and reckless manner."

Yesterday's Session of the State Encampment—Election of Officers.

A large amount of routine business was transacted at the forenoon meeting of the G. A. R. One resolution was passed instructing representatives to vote against the proposition to change the rules whereby men who have done involuntary service in the rebel army could become members of the Grand Army of the Republic. A motion was adopted approving the bill empowering count as to set out a sum equal to $1 per poll for each ex-Union soldier and marine, such sum to be used as a burial fund. In the case of John M. Gear nothing was done, as the only way to take hold of the matter is by Court Martial. The following officers were elected:

Department Commander—D. N. Foster, Fort Wayne.
Senior Department Commander—G. W. Miller, Terre Haute.
Junior Vice Department Commander—J. A. Young, Middletown.
Medical Director—A. R. Tucker, Ellettsville.
Department Chaplain—Alexander Blackburn, Lafayette.

Ben D. House was chosen Delegate-at-Large to the National Encampment at Portland, Ore., next July. Sixteen other delegates to the National Encampment were elected.

The members of the Council of Administration are J. A. Runyan, Warsaw, D. C. McCullum, LaPorte; J. A. Closser, Indianapolis; Medical, of Post 41; J. O. Pedigo, Lebanon.

The Department Commander appoints as his staff: Robert Stratton, Fort Wayne, Assistant Adjutant General; Frank E. Benjamin, Indianapolis, Assistant Quartermaster General; Jasper E. Lewis, South Bend, Inspector General; D. S. Wilson, Evansville, Chief Muster Officer; Thomas Hanna, Greencastle, Judge Advocate.

After installation by Past Commander-in-Chief, Paul Vandervoort, the Encampment adjourned.

Bishop Chastard's Lecture.
The lecture course of the St. Joseph Church began last night, a large number of ladies and gentlemen being present. Bishop Chastard lectured on "What has the Catholic Church done for this Country?" Father McMullen, of Terre Haute, will lecture at the same church about the middle of March. He will undoubtedly be greeted by a large audience.

The fact that the only other line from the West must reach Washington by a circuitous route, and that all its passenger traffic from the North and East must combine with all its Western traffic on the last forty-odd miles into the National Capital, is the strongest argument in favor of the B and O, which enters Washington from the West by one division, and enters from the North and East by another. Those who want to get into Washington will go by the B and O, and be assured of remaining in the cars until they reach the city.

Excursion to Washington.

Pullman Palace Sleeping Cars and Day Coaches will run through from Indianapolis to Washington, via Pan-Handle and Pennsylvania Lines, on trains leaving Indianapolis at 4:35 a. m., February 28 and March 1, and at 4:25 a. m. and 4:35 p. m., March 2. Fare, $17.00 for the round trip. Tickets good until March 10.

The through-sleeper system on picturesque B. and O. is particularly advantageous for inaugural travel. Through palace cars from all principal Western cities, and, for that matter, whole trains through, as on the B. and O. there is no change of cars of any class whatever.
